

Services we provide . . .

Safety Escorts

When available, a police officer will respond to your business and stand by:

- While employees close the business for the day & walk to their vehicles
- To follow an employee to the bank for a bank deposit drop
- To stand by during an employee termination process if there is concern for imminent danger

NOTE: There is no charge for this service, however, with the exception of the threat of imminent danger, the response may be delayed until an officer is available. It is best to contact our department at least fifteen minutes in advance of the time desired.
